A Fatal Flash.

A very severe electrical storm passed over this county last Tuesday night south of Chillicothe. The only fatal results of the storm reported comes from eight miles south of town, where the 8-year-old son of Mr. and Mrs. James McCleary was killed and Miss Phoebe Martin, the 17-year-old daughter of Samuel Martin, was seriously injured. Mrs. M. and two children were visiting at a neighboring farm house. When the storm came up they started for home along the big road. The two little boys were some ten yards apart, the elder of the two, and the one that was killed, being in the lead and almost within the door yard of his home. Miss Martin, who lives with Mrs. McCleary, ran out to meet the children with some wraps to protect them from the rain. When in a few yards of the boy lightning struck a tree, under which the little fellow was passing. The fluid ran down the tree to a point opposite the boy's shoulder, when it left the tree and struck the boy just above the heart, burning and tearing the flesh from the bones. Miss Martin was knocked down and the other little boy fell from the force of the shock. There was a cloud of dust raised, and when it cleared away a moment later what a horrible sight met the eyes of the mother who had by this time arrived where her little son lay in the road. Miss Martin so severely injured that for several days her life was despaired of, but she is now slowly recovering. The other child was not badly hurt. A strange fatality seems to follow the family of Mr. McCleary. Some ten years ago he lost a child in an accident, and not more than five years ago another little boy of the same family was thrown against a stump by a runaway horse, striking his head. From the effects of the shock he afterwards died of brain fever.—Chillicothe Constitution.

Another warning to Federal officeholders in Missouri is published in the form of an official letter in which Attorney-General GARLAND, by command of the President, informs the President pro tem. of the Senate that the removal of J. B. Hill, Marshal of the Eastern District of North Carolina, was made "for the sole reason that he left his home while he was Marshal in 1884, and went to the Republican convention of the First District, succeeded in having himself appointed by said convention as a delegate and participated in the proceedings of the same." If the President is determined to protect Republicans from the offensive participation of Federal officeholders in their conventions, surely he will not deny the same protection to Democrats. The removal of Hedden looks like an assurance that he will not, and Federal officeholders preparing to figure as delegates and members of campaign committees are certainly risking their official scalps.—Post Dispatch.

A little boy playing in old log house at Richmond, Mo., lost a marble through the floor and crawled under the house to get it. He found there a tin pail full of gold and silver coin. The amount proved to be $1,000. It was the property of an old gentleman of the place, who had hidden it there in 1864 and afterward, not finding it readily, thought it had been stolen.

A hail storm in Benton county, Indiana, drove a hen from her nest in the grass and broke the eggs. The hen went back as soon as the storm was over and began trying to hatch the hailstones that filled the nest. She didn't find out her mistake until her feet were very cold and her feathers very wet.

Consumption Cured.

An old physician, retired from practice, having had placed in his hands by an East India missionary the formula of a simple vegetable remedy for the speedy and permanent cure of consumption, bronchitis, catarrh, asthma and all throat and lung affections, also a positive and radical cure for nervous debility and all nervous complaints, after having tested its wonderful curative powers in thousands of cases, has felt it his duty to make it known to his suffering fellows. Actuated by this motive and a desire to relieve human suffering, I will send free of charge to all who desire it this recipe, in German, French or English, with full directions for preparing and using. Sent by mail by addressing with stamp, naming this paper, W. A. Noyes, 149 Power's Block, Rochester, N. Y.
